Twelve-Round, No-Decision Bout in Prospect Unless State Amends Boxing Law

Gov. Edwards Gives Consent to Big Fight

REGARDING the reported plan to A hold the Dempsey-Carpentier fight in New Jersey, Governor Edwards let it be known last night that as Chief Executive of the state e would not try to stop the bout if held in that state.

"If the fight is conducted in an orderly manner and according to the laws of New Jersey it will have my approval," said the Governor. "I have no objection to boxing conducted according to law."

The next battle for the heavyweight hampionship of the world, that to be ought on July 2 between the present title holder, Jack Dempsey, and Georges Carpentier, heavyweight champion of Europe, will be staged somewhere in the state of New Jersey, it was announced officially by Promoter Tex Rickard yesterday afternoon. Rickard said further the ring would be pitched in one of three cities he has under consideration Jersey City, Newark or Atlantic City. He hopes to make a definite selection

Rickard left late yesterday afternoon for Atlantic City. An alluring proposifor Atlantic City. An alluring proposi-tion has been made him by prominent citizens of this popular seashore resort, and he wishes personally to inspect the local situation there, as well as to familiarize himself with transportation facilities from the big Eastern cities and various other details. As to Jersey City and Newark, the premier promoter of boxing is well posted, having made a thorough study during the last few weeks.

Twelve-Round, No-Decision Bout

Unless the boxing laws of New Jersey are amended in the mean time, the coming heavyweight championship battle to be fought the Saturday afternoon preceding the Fourth of July will be contested over the twelve-round route and without a decision. Carpentier, therefore, would have to knock out Dempsey to take the championship from him. The principals are under contract to fight any distance desired up to fifteen rounds.

Those familiar with the accomplishments of Dempsey and Carpentier believe twelve rounds will be ample to decide the question of superiority. Indeed no one expects both these ferocious battlers to stand up that long. It is rumored on what appears to be excellent authority that before the coming fight the New Jersey law may be amended to permit of fifteen rounds to a decision.

While not vital, such a change no capacity, if occasion demands it, cabe doubled. This arena, which will be constructed of lumber, will be octagonal and is expected to cost approx mately $100,000. The angle of cive tion will be sufficient to bring the hea and shoulders of each apectator about those of the person seated in front of him.

While not vital, such a change no doubt would make a better attraction from a box office viewpoint, especially so the decision idea. For it is believed Carpentier could have a much better chance to outpoint Dempsey than to knock him out.

Dempsey won his title by knocking cut Willard at Toledo in a fight that was scheduled for fifteen rounds, no decision. In the last heavyweight championship held in New York Jess Willard successfully defended his title against Frank Moran in a ten-round, no decision affair in Madison Square Garden.

Bambino Contributes Only One Single, and Thereby Brooklyns Crow Loudly By Charles A. Taylor Charles H. Ebbets and his champion Dodgers played host to "Babe" Ruth and the rest of the Yankees yesterday afternoon in Flatbush and 12,000 fans and fanettes witnessed this informal opening of the baseball season. Carl Mays spoiled the occasion somewhat for the Brooklynites by pitching such airtight ball that he scored a 4-to-0 shut-out shut-out.

The was one crumb of satisfaction for the losers and their rooters and that was gleaned from the inability of Ruth to knock the ball out of the lot. The "Babe" tried hard, but the most he could accomplish was to make one infield single and draw a base on balls.

and forced in Mays. Wally Pipp accounted for the second tally with a long fly to Myers in center.

The fielding feature of the contest was the play made by Ward in the eighth, when it seemed as if the Dodgres, when had replaced Miller as the Brooklyn catcher, singled to right. Fifter fouled to Schang and then Ivan Olson smashed a ferce grounder between short and third.

Ward Grabs a Hot One The ball was going at a high rate of speed and appeared bound for the outfield, when suddenly Ward dived in front of it and succeeded in grabbing it, aithough falling as he did so. From a sitting posture Ward made a quick throw to Fewster, which forced Krueger.

Uncle Wilbert vanily tried every possible combination to upset the fine pitching of Mays. Krueger, Scheehan and Griffith were inserted into the flight of the work of the three his of the underhand twirler, one of them being good for two bases. The other Brooklyn hit fell to the lot of Ernie Krueger.

The excellent showing of Mays makes him the logical choice for the work of the
